

John 8:31

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

Analysis

Continuing in Christ's word distinguishes genuine disciples from false professors. The conditional 'if ye continue' doesn't suggest works-based salvation but evidential proof—true faith perseveres. 'My word' emphasizes obedience to Christ's teaching, not mere intellectual agreement. This verse introduces the freedom theme (v. 32, 36), showing that discipleship brings liberation, not bondage.

Historical Context

Many Jews believed based on Christ's signs (v. 30) but would soon turn away, proving shallow faith. Jesus warns that genuine discipleship requires continual abiding in His teaching, not emotional responses to miracles.
