

John 9:25

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

Analysis

---

'He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.' This is one of the Bible's great testimonies. The man refuses to debate theology he doesn't understand but maintains what he knows from experience. 'One thing I know'—his certainty is experiential, not theoretical. They cannot argue him out of what he has experienced.

Historical Context

This simple, powerful testimony has inspired countless Christians facing hostile questioning. Personal experience of Christ's work provides firm ground when theological debates swirl. The man doesn't claim omniscience, just one thing certainly known.

1. What is the 'one thing you know' about what Christ has done in your life?

2. Why is personal testimony powerful even against sophisticated opposition?
