

John 9:40

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

Analysis

'And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?' The Pharisees sense Jesus speaking about them. Their question expects denial—surely He doesn't mean they're blind? Their confidence in their own spiritual perception prevents them from receiving Jesus' light. The question reveals defensive pride rather than genuine inquiry.

Historical Context

This sets up Jesus' devastating final response. The Pharisees considered themselves Israel's guides, not blind themselves. Jesus' teaching threatened their entire self-understanding. Their rhetorical question expects Jesus to exempt them.

Study Questions

1. Why is the Pharisees' question defensive rather than genuine?
2. How does confidence in our own spiritual insight prevent receiving Christ's light?
