

Joshua 18:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

Analysis

Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land—The verb halak (הלך, 'walk/go throughout') implies thorough inspection, not casual observation. They must describe it (katav, write it down) with precision. This commission requires personal experience: they cannot report secondhand knowledge.

That I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh establishes Shiloh as Israel's worship center. The tabernacle resided there (18:1), making it the covenant nation's spiritual capital. Their work would enable sacred allocation at God's dwelling place.

Historical Context

Shiloh, centrally located in Ephraim, served as Israel's religious center for over 300 years until destroyed circa 1050 BC (Jeremiah 7:12). This survey mission took weeks, traversing hostile territory to map unconquered lands for future tribal settlement.
