

Joshua 2:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

Analysis

Hiding the spies under flax stalks on her roof shows provision of safe refuge. Rahab risked everything to protect God's servants, demonstrating faith through works.

Historical Context

This verse appears in the Jordan crossing narrative, one of Joshua's most significant events demonstrating God's power and faithfulness in bringing Israel into the Promised Land.

Related Passages

Ephesians 2:8 — Salvation by grace through faith
