

Judges 20:39

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

Analysis

Verse 39 details the aftermath of Benjamin's defeat. And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty per... The systematic destruction of Benjamin's territory represents the tragic outcome when civil war erupts among God's people—victory comes at devastating cost to the covenant community.

Historical Context

This verse describes the thorough nature of Benjamin's military defeat and the subsequent destruction of their tribal territory following the ambush strategy blessed by God after Israel's proper consultation.
