

Lamentations 3:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

Analysis

Dwelling in darkness like the dead (Psalm 143:3, Ephesians 2:1). Sin brings spiritual death; only Christ raises to life.

Historical Context

Exile felt like living death—separated from covenant life, temple, and land. Yet remnant maintained hope.

Study Questions

1. How does spiritual death under sin parallel physical death in a tomb?
2. In what ways does Christ call us from darkness to light (John 8:12, Colossians 1:13)?
