

Luke 1:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

Analysis

The sixth month reference connects to Elizabeth's pregnancy (Luke 1:24), demonstrating God's sovereign timing in redemptive history. Gabriel, whose name means 'God is my strength,' had previously appeared to Daniel and now announces the greatest event in human history. Luke's precision in naming both the angel and the obscure village of Nazareth highlights his careful historical documentation, while the choice of this humble Galilean town fulfills prophecy and demonstrates God's pattern of exalting the lowly.

Historical Context

Written around 60-62 AD, Luke's Gospel emphasizes God's work among the marginalized. Nazareth was a small, insignificant village in Galilee, prompting Nathanael's later skepticism (John 1:46). Gabriel had not appeared to humans since his messages to Daniel over 500 years earlier.
