

Luke 11:44

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

Analysis

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not (ὢτι ἔστε ὡς τὰ μνημεῖα τὰ ἄδηλα)—the third woe uses cemetery imagery. Mnēmeia (graves, tombs) that are adēla (unmarked, hidden) were problematic because stepping on them caused ritual defilement (Numbers 19:16). Jews whitewashed tombs annually before Passover to mark them visibly. And the men that walk over them are not aware of them—the Pharisees' hidden corruption defiles those who trust their teaching.

This devastating metaphor reverses their self-image: they considered themselves sources of purity, but were actually contagious corruption. Their religious authority defiled followers rather than sanctifying them. Jesus warns that false teachers are dangerous precisely because their corruption is hidden—they appear righteous while spreading spiritual death.

Historical Context

Numbers 19:16 declared anyone touching a grave unclean for seven days. Annual tomb-whitewashing (mentioned in Matthew 23:27) made graves visible to prevent accidental defilement. Jesus's metaphor of 'unmarked graves' suggests the Pharisees were even more dangerous than obvious corruption—hidden death masquerading as life.

Study Questions

1. What hidden sins or hypocrisies might you be harboring that could spiritually 'defile' those who trust your example?
2. How does this passage challenge the danger of religious leadership divorced from genuine godliness?
3. In what ways might respectable external religion mask internal corruption that harms others?
