

Luke 2:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

Analysis

The shepherds 'came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger' demonstrates that faith is rewarded with finding what God promised. The detail 'with haste' emphasizes eager urgency, not panic. That they 'found' confirms the angel's specific directions were accurate and God's revelation reliable. The listing order—Mary, Joseph, the babe—emphasizes the human context of divine incarnation. The repetition 'lying in a manger' confirms this was indeed the sign the angel gave (v12). Their finding exactly what was promised validates faith in divine revelation and demonstrates God's faithfulness to His word. Simple shepherds received the privilege of being first human witnesses to the incarnate God.

Historical Context

The shepherds' successful finding of the infant based on the sign (manger) confirmed the supernatural nature of the announcement. In Bethlehem's small size, a newborn in a manger would be unusual and identifiable. Their witness as first visitors emphasizes God's choice of the lowly.
