

Luke 2:37

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

Analysis

A widow of about fourscore and four years (χήρα ἔως ἑτῶν ὀγδοήκοντα τεσσάρων, chēra heōs etōn ogdoēkonta tessarōn)—Likely 84 years of widowhood (not total age), making Anna over 100. The Greek construction suggests prolonged state: 84 years of faithfulness despite loss.

Which departed not from the temple (οὐκ ἀφίστατο τοῦ ἱεροῦ, ouk aphistato tou hierou)—The imperfect tense indicates continuous, habitual action: she never left. But served God with fastings and prayers night and day (νηστείαις καὶ δεήσεσιν λατρεύουσα νύκτα καὶ ἡμέραν, nēsteiais kai deēsesin latreuousa nykta kai hēmeran)—The verb latreuō means 'worship' or 'serve,' particularly in religious ritual. Her life became perpetual liturgy, fasting and intercession without ceasing (1 Thessalonians 5:17), anticipating reward for those who 'hunger and thirst after righteousness' (Matthew 5:6).

Historical Context

Temple worship included morning and evening sacrifices with accompanying prayers (Exodus 29:38-42). Devout worshippers often attended both, but Anna's presence extended beyond scheduled services to virtually continuous intercession. Her lifestyle paralleled later Christian monastic traditions of perpetual prayer.

Study Questions

1. How does Anna's 84 years of temple devotion challenge contemporary views of retirement or decreased spiritual service in old age?
2. What does her practice of 'fastings and prayers night and day' teach about prioritizing intimacy with God over physical comfort?
