

Luke 2:41

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.

Analysis

Jesus' parents 'went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover,' demonstrating their faithful observance of Torah. The annual Passover pilgrimage was commanded in Deuteronomy 16:16—all males must appear before the LORD three times yearly (Passover, Pentecost, Tabernacles). Mary and Joseph's consistent obedience shows their genuine piety and commitment to raising Jesus within covenant faithfulness. This context is crucial—Jesus was raised in an observant Jewish home, learned Scripture and tradition, and participated fully in Israel's worship life.

Historical Context

First-century Jews throughout Palestine and the diaspora made pilgrimages to Jerusalem for major festivals. The week-long Passover celebration commemorated Israel's exodus from Egypt. Galilean pilgrims typically traveled in large groups for safety, taking 3-4 days to walk the roughly 70 miles from Nazareth to Jerusalem. This annual pattern shaped Jesus' upbringing, immersing Him in Israel's faith and identity. His later temple teaching and Jerusalem ministry built on childhood familiarity with the holy city and its worship.
