

Luke 5:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

Analysis

He saw two ships standing by lake fishermen gone out washing nets. Two ships indicates fishing partnership. Fishermen gone out exited boats. Washing nets cleaning maintaining equipment end of work. Normal workday ending Jesus enters ordinary life. God calls people where they are not requiring special religious preparation. Washing nets mundane task becomes setting for divine encounter. Jesus sees not just boats nets but potential disciples. God sees beyond present circumstances to future calling. Reformed theology emphasizes God sovereign initiative in calling election precedes human response faith is gift. Jesus approaching these men is grace they did not seek Him initially.

Historical Context

Fishing on Galilee required boats nets equipment significant investment. Partnerships were common sharing costs labor profits. Morning fishing expeditions ended with cleaning nets for next use. Galilee fishing was major industry fish salted dried exported. Peter Andrew James John operated successful business. Their later abandonment of this prosperity for itinerant ministry with Jesus demonstrates radical nature of discipleship call. First-century rabbis typically did not seek disciples disciples sought rabbis. Jesus reverses pattern demonstrates sovereign grace in calling.
