

Mark 1:35

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

Analysis

Mark emphasizes Christ's prayer life with precise timing: 'a great while before day,' demonstrating His priority of communion with the Father before ministry activity. Despite exhausting public ministry, Jesus sought solitude ('solitary place') for prayer, modeling the necessity of spiritual disciplines even for the incarnate Son. His humanity required this fellowship, teaching us our absolute dependence on prayer.

Historical Context

Jewish prayer times were typically morning, afternoon, and evening. Christ's prayer 'a great while before day' indicates extraordinary devotion, likely around 3-4 AM. The Galilean countryside provided natural solitary places—hills, shores, and wilderness areas near Capernaum.
