

Mark 13:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

Analysis

Learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near—Jesus shifts from apocalyptic vision to agricultural illustration. The Greek mathete (μάθετε, 'learn') commands active observation. The fig tree (sykē, συκῆ) was common in Palestine, losing leaves in winter and budding in spring—a reliable natural sign.

The parable (παραβολή, parable/comparison) functions as a prophetic wake-up call: just as seasonal signs are unmistakable, so the events Jesus described (vv. 5-23) will signal his coming. The tender branch (hapalos, ἀπαλός, soft/young) sprouting leaves inevitably leads to summer (theros, θέρος, harvest time). This creates tension with verse 32's 'no one knows the day or hour'—we can recognize the season without calculating the exact moment. The fig tree may also symbolize Israel (Jeremiah 24, Hosea 9:10), whose 'leafing' portends judgment-harvest.

Historical Context

Palestinian agriculture shaped Jesus's teaching vocabulary. Fig harvest (August-September) was economically vital, and observing the tree's spring budding (April-May) allowed farmers to plan. Rabbinic literature similarly used agricultural parables to teach Torah. The fig tree imagery would evoke Jesus's cursing of the barren fig tree (Mark 11:12-14, 20-21), symbolizing Israel's spiritual fruitlessness and impending judgment.

Study Questions

1. What are the spiritual 'signs of the times' you observe that point toward Christ's purposes unfolding in history?
2. How does this parable balance watchful awareness with the humility of not knowing exact timing?
3. In what ways might you be producing 'leaves' (religious appearance) without the fruit of genuine discipleship?
