

Mark 14:39

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

Analysis

And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words. Jesus' repeated prayer (τὸν αὐτὸν λόγον εἰπὼν, ton auton logon eipōn, "saying the same word") demonstrates persistent intercession, not vain repetition. This pattern—pray, return, find disciples sleeping, return to prayer—reveals both Christ's humanity (needing repeated prayer) and His submission (continuing to ask for the Father's will despite the answer).

The phrase the same words likely refers to verse 36's prayer: "Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt." Repeated prayer with unchanged petition yet deepening submission models how prayer changes the pray-er more than circumstances. Jesus wrestled toward acceptance, teaching us that submission isn't absence of struggle but victory through struggle.

Historical Context

Jewish prayer tradition valued repetition of set prayers (the Shema, the Amidah), but also emphasized heartfelt petition. Jesus' model here combines both—persistent repetition with genuine wrestling. The Gethsemane prayers occurred during Passover night, when faithful Jews would be discussing the Exodus; Jesus was about to become the true Passover Lamb.
