

Mark 15:38

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

Analysis

The veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom—The Greek katapetasma (καταπέτασμα, veil/curtain) separated the Holy of Holies from the Holy Place in the temple. This massive curtain, roughly 60 feet high, 30 feet wide, and 4 inches thick (according to Josephus), required 300 priests to manipulate. Only the high priest could pass through, once yearly on Yom Kippur (Leviticus 16).

The passive verb eschisthē (ἐσχίσθη, 'was torn') indicates divine action—no human could tear this veil. The direction ap' anōthen heōs katō (ἀπ' ἄνωθεν ἕως κάτω, 'from top to bottom') confirms God Himself tore it. This occurred at the exact moment Jesus died, declaring access to God now open through Christ's finished work. Hebrews 10:19-20 interprets: 'We have boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh.' The torn veil proclaims the Old Covenant system obsolete—Christ Himself is the new and living way.

Historical Context

The temple veil separated the Holy of Holies (God's dwelling place) from the rest of the temple. Jewish tradition held the veil represented the barrier between holy God and sinful humanity—impassable except through prescribed sacrifice and priestly mediation. The veil's tearing occurred during Passover preparation at 3 PM, when priests were in the temple preparing evening sacrifices. This public, undeniable miracle would have been witnessed by multiple priests and caused theological crisis. Forty years later (70 AD), the entire temple was destroyed, ending the old sacrificial system permanently.
