

Mark 6:42

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And they did all eat, and were filled.

Analysis

And they did all eat, and were filled. The miracle's result confirms complete provision. Everyone ate and 'were filled' (ἐχορτάσθησαν, echortasthēsan), meaning completely satisfied. Christ's provision doesn't merely meet minimum needs but provides abundant satisfaction. This material feeding illustrated spiritual reality: Christ as Bread of Life fully satisfies spiritual hunger (John 6:35). Reformed theology emphasizes God's lavish grace—salvation isn't grudging minimum but overflowing abundance.

Historical Context

In subsistence economy where many lived hand-to-mouth, being truly 'filled' was luxury the poor rarely enjoyed. The miracle's abundance showed God's generous character. This fulfilled messianic promises of abundant provision (Isaiah 25:6; Psalm 132:15) and echoed wilderness manna, identifying Jesus as greater than Moses.
