

Mark 6:50

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

Analysis

For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. 'They all saw him'—establishing corporate witness, not individual vision. 'Were troubled' (ἐταράχθησαν, etarachthēsan, agitated/terrified). Jesus 'immediately' (εὐθὺς, euthys) spoke: 'Be of good cheer' (θαρσεῖτε, tharseite, take courage). 'It is I' (ἐγώ εἰμι, egō eimi) echoes divine name (Exodus 3:14), asserting deity. 'Be not afraid' replaces terror with peace through revelation of His identity.

Historical Context

The phrase egō eimi ('I am') carried theological weight, recalling God's self-revelation to Moses. Ancient readers familiar with Hebrew Bible would recognize the echo. Jesus' immediate response to their fear demonstrated compassion alongside power. Early church saw this as paradigm: when Christ reveals Himself, fear transforms to faith. The walking on water authenticated His deity—only God controls creation.
