

Matthew 1:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

Analysis

The genealogy's structure breaks at this crucial point: Joseph is called 'the husband of Mary' rather than 'begat Jesus,' indicating the virgin birth. Jesus is born 'of' Mary, not Joseph, yet Joseph's lineage provides legal inheritance rights to David's throne. The title 'Christ' (Greek for 'Messiah') identifies Jesus as the Anointed One, God's promised King, Priest, and Prophet.

Historical Context

This verse brings us to approximately 4-6 BC (Herod died in 4 BC). The Roman Empire had united the Mediterranean world, Greek was the common language, and Jewish communities existed throughout the known world—God's sovereign timing for the Incarnation.

Study Questions

1. How does the virgin birth preserve both Christ's humanity (born of Mary) and deity (conceived by the Holy Spirit)?
2. What does the title 'Christ' signify about Jesus' threefold office as Prophet, Priest, and King?
