

Matthew 1:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

Analysis

Matthew explicitly draws attention to the genealogy's three-fold structure, emphasizing God's sovereign design in salvation history. Each period represents a distinct phase of covenant administration, all culminating in Christ. This demonstrates that the Old Testament is not random history but purposeful preparation for the gospel.

Historical Context

This summary statement helps Jewish readers see continuity between their entire history and Jesus. The structure moves from promise (Abraham) to kingdom (David) to judgment and exile (Babylon) to fulfillment in Christ.
