

Matthew 1:21

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name
JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Analysis

The name 'Jesus' (Hebrew: Yeshua) means 'Yahweh saves,' directly stating His mission. The phrase 'he shall save his people from their sins' defines salvation not as political deliverance but spiritual redemption. This is the first explicit statement in Matthew that the Messiah came to deal with sin—the root problem of humanity.

Historical Context

First-century Jews expected a military messiah to overthrow Rome. Matthew immediately redefines messianic expectations by focusing on spiritual salvation. The angel's words echo Psalm 130:8 about God redeeming Israel from all iniquities.
