

Matthew 10:37

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

Analysis

Jesus' statement 'He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me' demands supreme loyalty. Family ties, humanity's strongest natural bonds, must not rival devotion to Christ. This isn't commanding hatred of family but prioritizing Christ above all relationships. The phrase 'not worthy' means unfit or unqualified for discipleship. Following Jesus requires Him to be Lord of every relationship, even the most precious.

Historical Context

In Jewish culture, family honor and obligation were paramount. Jesus' words would shock hearers by demanding loyalty beyond family. This doesn't abolish the fifth commandment but subordinates all relationships to Christ. Many early believers faced family persecution for following Jesus.
