

Matthew 14:20

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

Analysis

The result—'they did all eat, and were filled'—emphasizes abundance: not merely satisfied but filled to satiety. The phrase 'they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full' demonstrates surplus exceeding the original supply. Twelve baskets (one per disciple?) showed God's provision exceeds need. This abundance contrasts with the disciples' worry about scarcity, demonstrating God's generosity when we trust Him with inadequate resources.

Historical Context

The word 'baskets' (Greek: kophinos) refers to small wicker baskets Jews used for carrying provisions, distinguishing this miracle from the feeding of 4000 (different Greek word). The careful collection of leftovers shows proper stewardship despite miraculous provision. The twelve baskets may symbolize provision for the twelve tribes of Israel.
