

Matthew 15:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

Analysis

Jesus' response to the Canaanite woman—'O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt'—commends extraordinary faith. 'Great is thy faith' contrasts with His frequent 'little faith' rebukes to disciples. Her persistent faith despite apparent rejection, ethnic barriers, and insulting language (dogs, v. 26) demonstrated uncommon trust. 'Be it unto thee even as thou wilt' grants her request, rewarding perseverance. This Gentile woman's faith shames Israelite unbelief.

Historical Context

The Canaanite woman faced multiple obstacles: wrong ethnicity (Canaanite not Jew), wrong gender (women were marginalized), wrong theology (pagan not monotheist). Jesus' initial seeming rejection ('It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs,' v. 26) tested her faith. Her humble persistence ('yet the dogs eat of the crumbs,' v. 27) demonstrated faith surpassing many Israelites.
