

Matthew 15:34

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

Analysis

And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? (καὶ λέγει αὐτοῖς ὁ Ἰησοῦς, Πόσους ἄρτους ἔχετε;)—Jesus's question focuses them on present resources, not absent provisions. He always begins with what we have, not what we lack. The interrogative πόσος ('how many') invites inventory—what's available for God to use? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes (οἱ δὲ εἶπαν, Ἐπτά, καὶ ὀλίγα ἰχθύδια)—seven loaves and ὀλίγα ἰχθύδια ('a few small fishes,' diminutive of ἰχθῦς).

The number seven (ἐπτά) symbolizes completeness in Scripture. While the 5,000 were fed with five loaves (representing Torah's five books and Jewish ministry), the 4,000 receive seven loaves (representing complete gospel provision for all nations). The small fish emphasize the inadequacy of human resources for divine tasks—yet Christ multiplies whatever is offered to Him. Our insufficiency becomes the platform for His all-sufficiency.

Historical Context

Bread (ἄρτος) was the staple food of ancient Palestine, made from wheat or barley. Fish from the Sea of Galilee—typically dried or salted for preservation—provided protein. The disciples' inventory was perhaps their own provisions for the journey. Jesus's use of their personal food demonstrates that God uses what we surrender, not what we withhold. The feeding miracles validated Jesus's claim to be the Bread of Life (John 6:35).

1. What insufficient resources in your life could Christ multiply if you offered them to Him?
2. How does focusing on what you have, rather than what you lack, change your perspective on ministry opportunities?
