

Matthew 15:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

Analysis

Jesus quotes the fifth commandment, 'Honour thy father and mother,' linking it to divine authority. This commandment carries both promise and threat—long life for obedience, death penalty for disobedience (Exodus 21:17). Reformed theology emphasizes the Ten Commandments' continuing moral authority. Jesus uses Scripture to expose how Pharisaic tradition violated God's law. The appeal to 'God commanded' establishes divine authority over human tradition.

Historical Context

The fifth commandment appears in Exodus 20:12 and Deuteronomy 5:16. It was the first commandment with promise and bridged duties to God (commands 1-4) and duties to neighbor (commands 6-10). Jewish tradition highly valued parental honor, yet the Corban loophole undermined this. Jesus' citation shows His allegiance to biblical law over rabbinic tradition.
