

Matthew 15:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

Analysis

Christ quotes Isaiah 29:13, highlighting the divorce between lip service and heart allegiance. The contrast between 'draweth nigh unto me with their mouth' and 'their heart is far from me' exposes the essence of hypocrisy. Reformed theology stresses that God examines the heart (1 Samuel 16:7); external worship without internal devotion is abomination. This verse demolishes any notion that God accepts mere formalism. True worship requires Spirit-wrought regeneration producing genuine love for God.

Historical Context

In Isaiah's context, Judah relied on political alliances and religious ritual while abandoning covenant faithfulness. Their worship had become mere cultural habit. Jesus applies this diagnosis to first-century Judaism, where Pharisaic tradition had replaced genuine devotion with mechanical observance.
