

Matthew 18:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

Analysis

Jesus promises that two believers agreeing in prayer will receive answers from 'my Father which is in heaven.' This isn't blank-check prayer but corporate prayer aligned with God's will. The context of church discipline shows this particularly applies to restoration and kingdom purposes. Reformed theology emphasizes prayer's efficacy when offered in faith according to God's will (1 John 5:14-15). The 'two or three' number establishes witnesses (Deuteronomy 19:15) and demonstrates that Christ's presence empowers corporate prayer.

Historical Context

Jewish tradition required two or three witnesses to establish truth (Deuteronomy 19:15). Jesus applies this to prayer—corporate prayer carries special authority. The 'agreeing' (Greek 'symphōneō'—harmonize, from which 'symphony' derives) emphasizes unity of purpose. Early church practice emphasized corporate prayer (Acts 1:14, 2:42, 4:24).
