Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

Analysis

---

Herod's death demonstrates God's sovereign justice—tyrants may rage, but their days are numbered by divine decree. The timing of the angel's message shows God's providential care, protecting His Son until the threat passed. This illustrates the principle that no weapon formed against God's purposes shall prosper (Isaiah 54:17).

Historical Context

Herod died in 4 BC from a gruesome disease described by Josephus, involving gangrene and worms. His death was agonizing, befitting his cruelty. God's timing in protecting Jesus until after Herod's death shows precise providential care.
