

Matthew 2:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

Analysis

---

Matthew's statement about Nazareth fulfilling prophecy is puzzling since no specific Old Testament text says 'He shall be called a Nazarene.' Most likely, this references the Hebrew 'netzer' (branch) in Isaiah 11:1, or reflects Nazareth's despised status (John 1:46), showing Christ identified with the rejected and lowly. This demonstrates Christ's humiliation in taking on human nature in its weakest, most despised form.

Historical Context

Nazareth was an insignificant Galilean village, looked down upon even by other Jews. Growing up there subjected Jesus to scorn, fulfilling prophecies of Messiah being 'despised and rejected' (Isaiah 53:3). The term may also play on 'Nazarite' consecration.

Study Questions

1. How does Christ's association with despised Nazareth demonstrate His willing humiliation for our sake?
2. What does Jesus' identification with the lowly and rejected mean for our own status in the world?
