

Matthew 24:42

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

Analysis

Jesus' command 'Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come' emphasizes vigilance due to uncertainty. 'Watch' means spiritual alertness, moral preparedness, and faithful service. The uncertainty 'ye know not what hour' prevents complacency—we must live ready for Christ's return at any moment. This isn't anxious fear but joyful anticipation motivating holy living. Date-setting is forbidden; readiness is commanded.

Historical Context

Jesus repeatedly emphasizes the unknown timing of His return (vv. 36, 42, 44, 50). This prevents speculation and manipulation while encouraging constant readiness. 'Watch' isn't passive waiting but active faithfulness. The command assumes believers should live expecting Christ's imminent return, though timing remains uncertain.
