

Matthew 26:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

Analysis

Now when Jesus was in Bethany—Bethany means 'house of affliction' or 'house of dates,' located about two miles east of Jerusalem on the Mount of Olives' eastern slope. This was Jesus's base during Passion Week, home of Mary, Martha, and Lazarus (John 11:1)—the family Jesus loved.

In the house of Simon the leper—Simon had likely been healed by Jesus, hence hosting this meal. The Greek lepros (λεπρός) designated various skin diseases that rendered one ceremonially unclean (Leviticus 13-14). That Jesus dines in a former leper's home demonstrates His radical acceptance of the marginalized and His power to cleanse the unclean.

Historical Context

This anointing occurs on Wednesday evening of Passion Week (John 12:1-8 places it six days before Passover). Mark 14:3-9 provides a parallel account. The location in Bethany, outside Jerusalem's tumult, offered Jesus refuge during His final week before crucifixion.
