

Matthew 3:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

Analysis

---

John attacks the foundational error of Judaism—presuming that Abrahamic descent guarantees salvation. His radical statement that 'God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham' demonstrates that true Abrahamic sonship is spiritual, not merely physical (Romans 9:6-8). God's sovereign election, not ethnic privilege, determines covenant membership. This principle undergirds Paul's later theology of justification by faith alone.

Historical Context

First-century Jews believed descent from Abraham assured covenant blessing. This ethnic confidence undergirded their rejection of Jesus. Paul later develops John's principle that the true Israel consists of those who have Abraham's faith (Galatians 3:7-9).

Study Questions

1. How does John's statement anticipate Paul's teaching about spiritual versus ethnic Israel (Romans 2:28-29)?
2. What false securities do people trust today instead of genuine faith in Christ?
