

Matthew 4:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

Analysis

Jesus' relocation from Nazareth to Capernaum was both practical (Nazareth had rejected Him, Luke 4:16-30) and prophetically significant (fulfilling Isaiah 9:1-2). Capernaum became Jesus' ministry headquarters, a fishing town on Galilee's northwest shore. The move to 'the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim' deliberately fulfilled prophecy, demonstrating that Christ's entire ministry unfolded according to divine decree.

Historical Context

Capernaum was a prosperous fishing village and customs station on the Via Maris trade route. It provided access to larger populations while being less restrictive than Jerusalem. Several disciples including Peter lived there. Archaeological excavations have identified what may be Peter's house.

Study Questions

---

1. How does Christ's move to Capernaum demonstrate that His entire life and ministry fulfilled divine prophecy?
2. What does Jesus' establishment of a ministry base in 'Galilee of the Gentiles' foreshadow about the gospel going to all nations?
