

Matthew 6:16

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

Analysis

Jesus condemns hypocrites who 'disfigure their faces' during fasting to advertise their piety. The Greek 'aphanizo' (disfigure/make unrecognizable) suggests deliberate effort to appear haggard and spiritual. Their goal was not communion with God but human admiration. Like almsgiving and prayer, fasting's value depends entirely on motive. When done 'to be seen of men, they have their reward'—present human approval exhausts their compensation from God.

Historical Context

Pharisees fasted twice weekly (Luke 18:12), often Monday and Thursday when markets were busiest, ensuring maximum audience. Disfigurement included unwashed faces, disheveled hair, and ashes—visible markers of 'spirituality' that garnered social status but masked pride.

Study Questions

1. How can spiritual disciplines like fasting be practiced for God's glory rather than cultivating reputation for piety?
2. What does Jesus' consistent condemnation of hypocritical displays reveal about God's priorities in evaluating religious practice?
