

Matthew 7:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

Analysis

Many will claim Christian profession ('Lord, Lord'), even claiming to prophesy, cast out demons, and do mighty works in Jesus's name—yet be rejected as workers of iniquity. Religious activity, even supernatural activity, doesn't prove salvation. Only those who do the Father's will enter heaven.

Historical Context

This terrifying warning addresses false professors who have all the externals of Christianity—correct language, miraculous works, public ministry—yet lack genuine relationship with Christ. Judas Iscariot exemplifies this: he performed miracles with the Twelve but betrayed Jesus.

Related Passages

1 John 4:8 — God is love

1 Corinthians 13:4 — Characteristics of love

Study Questions

1. What religious activities or experiences are you tempted to trust in place of genuine obedience and relationship with Christ?

2. How can you ensure your faith is authentic relationship with Jesus, not just religious performance?
