

Matthew 7:23

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Analysis

The most terrifying words in Scripture: 'I never knew you.' Not 'I once knew you but you fell away,' but 'I never knew you.' Despite their religious works and supernatural ministry, Jesus never had relationship with them. They worked iniquity—lawlessness—showing that apparent Christian activity masked unregenerate hearts.

Historical Context

This warning echoes Jesus's teaching about entering through the narrow gate. Many claim Christianity, perform religious activities, even minister powerfully—yet lack genuine saving relationship with Christ. External religion without internal regeneration damns.

Study Questions

1. Do you know Jesus personally and intimately, or do you merely know about Him and serve Him externally?

2. What evidence in your life demonstrates that Jesus knows you and you know Him?
