

Matthew 8:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

Analysis

Matthew quotes Isaiah 53:4 to explain Jesus' healing ministry as fulfillment of messianic prophecy. The phrase 'Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses' connects Christ's healing miracles to His substitutionary atonement. While the ultimate fulfillment is the cross bearing our sins, the healings demonstrated His identification with human suffering and power to deliver from all effects of the fall. This shows the incarnate Son entering fully into human misery to redeem it.

Historical Context

Isaiah 53:4's context is the Suffering Servant's substitutionary atonement. Matthew shows Jesus' healing ministry was not merely humanitarian but redemptive—demonstrating His power over sin's consequences and His role as the sin-bearer who would ultimately die for transgressions.
