

Matthew 8:26

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

Analysis

Jesus' rebuke 'Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith?' comes before the miracle, challenging the disciples' faith deficit despite His presence. The phrase 'Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea' shows Jesus' creative authority—He commands nature like the Creator. The result: 'there was a great calm'—not gradual, but immediate and complete. This demonstrates His deity, for 'who can command even winds and water?' (Luke 8:25).

Historical Context

Sudden storms on Galilee were common due to surrounding hills. The disciples were experienced fishermen, so their terror indicates a genuinely life-threatening storm. Jesus sleeping in the storm shows His full humanity (exhaustion) and divine peace (confidence in the Father's care).
