

Numbers 11:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched.

Analysis

When judgment fire from God consumed the outskirts of the camp, the people cried to Moses who interceded in prayer. This established Moses' role as mediator between holy God and sinful people, prefiguring Christ our ultimate Mediator (1 Timothy 2:5). The immediate cessation of fire at Moses' prayer demonstrates God's responsiveness to intercessory prayer and His desire for mercy over judgment.

Historical Context

This incident occurred at Taberah ('burning'), likely early in the wilderness journey. The complaining began almost immediately after leaving Sinai, revealing how quickly Israel forgot God's provision and turned to grumbling.
