

Numbers 14:30

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I sware to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

Analysis

Immediately upon Moses finishing speaking, 'the ground clave asunder that was under them'—dramatic fulfillment of the prophesied 'new thing.' The timing's precision demonstrated God's sovereign control and Moses' prophetic authority. The verb 'clave' (Hebrew 'baqa') means to split or cleave, indicating violent rupture of the earth's surface.

Historical Context

This judgment occurred before the assembled congregation, providing incontrovertible evidence of God's power and displeasure with rebellion against His appointed leadership. The event became a perpetual warning (26:10).
