

Numbers 14:33

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.

Analysis

Israel's response was flight and fear: 'all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them.' They feared lest 'the earth swallow us up also,' showing immediate recognition of God's power and their own vulnerability to judgment. This terror produced temporary reverence but not lasting faith, as subsequent rebellion (v. 41) proved.

Historical Context

The fleeing Israelites' cry and fear provided momentary sobriety, but within a day they again rebelled (16:41), showing that fear-based obedience doesn't produce heart transformation. Only grace creates genuine devotion.
