

Numbers 14:37

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD.

Analysis

The repetition that these men died 'by the plague before the LORD' emphasizes divine agency in their judgment. Their death was not misfortune but direct divine response to covenant breaking. God takes seriously those who cause His people to stumble, especially leaders whose influence multiplies the damage of unbelief.

Historical Context

The immediacy of judgment contrasts with the delayed consequence for the rest of the generation (who would die over forty years). This differential timing demonstrates that God calibrates His discipline according to degrees of responsibility and influence.
