

Numbers 14:42

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

Analysis

Go not up, for the LORD is not among you—Moses' urgent warning (לֹא תַעֲלוּ כִּי אֵין יְהוָה בְּקִרְבְּכֶם al-ta'alu ki ein YHWH bekirbekem) identifies the fatal flaw in Israel's plan: divine absence. The phrase is not among you reverses the covenant promise 'I will dwell among them' (Exodus 25:8), showing that presumptuous disobedience forfeits God's presence.

That ye be not smitten before your enemies—The verb smitten (נָגַף nagaph, routed/struck down) describes divinely-permitted military defeat. Throughout Israel's history, victories depended on covenant obedience (Joshua 6-8; Judges 7; 1 Samuel 14), while disobedience guaranteed defeat regardless of military strength (Joshua 7; 1 Samuel 4). Paul warns Christians against presuming on grace: 'Let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall' (1 Corinthians 10:12).

Historical Context

Moses spoke this warning after God decreed wilderness wandering (14:26-35). The people's attempt to reverse judgment through self-initiated action demonstrates fundamental misunderstanding of covenant relationship—God determines blessing and judgment, not human religious activity.
