

Numbers 14:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

Analysis

Joshua and Caleb's tearing of garments expressed grief over the people's unbelief and the impending judgment it would bring. This traditional sign of mourning demonstrated that they understood what was at stake—not merely a military campaign but the nation's covenant relationship with God. Their anguish revealed hearts aligned with God's purposes rather than popular opinion.

Historical Context

Rending garments was a standard expression of grief in ancient Israel, particularly in response to blasphemy or covenant violation (Genesis 37:29, 2 Kings 18:37). Joshua and Caleb recognized that rejecting God's promise constituted covenant breaking deserving such dramatic response.
