

Numbers 15:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oil.

Analysis

For a ram thou shalt prepare for a meat offering (הַמִּנְחָה minchah)—The grain offering accompanying the ram required two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil. This minchah was not 'meat' in modern English but a tribute-offering of grain, acknowledging God's provision of daily bread.

The graduated scale (lamb = 1/10 ephah; ram = 2/10 ephah; bullock = 3/10 ephah) reflects the worshiper's means while maintaining the principle that no one approaches God empty-handed. The mixture of flour and oil symbolized the union of human labor (grinding grain) with divine blessing (oil representing the Spirit).

Historical Context

Written during Israel's wilderness wanderings (c. 1440s BC), these regulations standardized offerings for all Israel. The precise measurements ensured equity—rich and poor alike brought offerings proportionate to the sacrifice's size, not their personal wealth.

Study Questions

1. How does the graduated offering scale reflect God's concern for both justice (standardization) and mercy (proportionality)?
2. What does the requirement of a grain offering with every animal sacrifice teach about integrating worship into daily provision?
3. In what ways does the oil-and-flour mixture foreshadow the Spirit's role in making our worship acceptable to God?
