

Numbers 16:11

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

Analysis

Moses declares the true target of their rebellion: 'ye gather against the LORD.' What appeared as challenge to human leadership was actually revolt against divine authority. This penetrating insight reveals that all rebellion against God-ordained authority ultimately opposes God Himself. Aaron was merely the visible representative of God's choice.

Historical Context

This echoes Moses' earlier statement when Israel complained: 'your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD' (Exodus 16:8). The pattern recurs throughout Scripture: rejecting God's appointed leaders constitutes rejecting God (1 Samuel 8:7, Luke 10:16).
