

Numbers 21:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.

Analysis

Israel journeyed 'by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom' because Edom refused passage (20:14-21). This detour tested patience, prompting the complaint that follows. The phrase 'the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way' reveals how circumstantial difficulty can erode faith, especially when God's path seems indirect or unnecessarily hard.

Historical Context

The southern route around Edom added significant time and distance to reach Canaan. This detour through difficult terrain came near the 40 years' end, when entry to the Promised Land seemed tantalizingly close yet frustratingly delayed.
