

Numbers 21:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.

Analysis

Israel's complaint repeated familiar themes: 'Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness?' They again despised manna, calling it 'light bread' (Hebrew 'qeloqel', worthless or contemptible). This rejection of God's miraculous provision near the journey's end showed that time doesn't automatically mature faith—Israel ended as they began, in unbelieving complaint.

Historical Context

This complaint came in the 40th year, meaning the new generation repeated their parents' faithless pattern (11:6). Despite witnessing 40 years of daily manna provision, they despised God's bread, showing unbelief transmits culturally without intentional faith formation.
